

LOCAL NEWS.

CHRISTMAS.—Christmas has come and gone, and its incidents been added to the many that crowd the past. Its happy reunions, friendly greetings and presents are now garnered among the stores of memory, and will mark the future by unsatisfied longings for their return. The two days of holiday were spent in this city as quietly, probably, as in any place of the same size in the country, and with as much enjoyment. All the Sunday Schools had their celebrations and all the scholars received their gifts. The Catholic and Episcopal Churches were beautifully dressed, and on Christmas day all the churches open were attended by large congregations. Yesterday was observed as the secular holiday, and nearly all the places of business, except the confectioners' shops, were closed, and King street was crowded during the whole day by merry-makers—some of whom had so much Christmas in their bones that their muscles could not control them. There was not as much powder exploded as usual and not a single accident has been reported.

THE WEATHER.—The present "cold snap" is one of the most severe ever experienced in this locality, and knocks into a cocked hat the theory about a change in the seasons induced by the approach of the Gulf Stream to the shores of America. It commenced on the night of the 20th, when the thermometer fell to 6 degrees below the freezing point. On the night of the 23d the river froze over from shore to shore, and on the morning of the 24th the mercury stood at 6 degrees above zero. The temperature moderated yesterday, and this morning the thermometer indicated 20 degrees. Since Saturday navigation has been entirely suspended and persons have walked across the Potomac as securely as though they were on the ground. Many of the ice houses in the city are being filled with ice five or six inches thick, and as clear as crystal, taken from the canal basin.

FIRE.—The alarm of fire between eight and nine o'clock on Christmas morning was caused by the burning of the old framed house on Prince street, adjoining, on the west, the old Farmer's Bank. The fire department was soon on hand and at work, and the flames were prevented from spreading. The building was occupied by colored people, and the fire was accidental. The property belonged to the estate of the late Thompson Mason, esq., and was insured in a Richmond insurance company. The house was one of the oldest in the city, in 1794 having been used as a brass foundry by Mr. George Fletcher. It then stood on the west side of a branch that ran from about where the Marshall House now stands to Flunting Creek, a cross lock of which stream now lies embedded at the intersection of Duke and Royal streets.

RIVER BOATS.—An attempt was made by the steamer Iroquois, of the Aquia Creek line, to force a passage from Washington to this city this morning, but it failed signally. The steamer Columbia left Baltimore for this city last Saturday evening, but after proceeding some distance on her way turned back. The Wawaset due here Sunday evening was caught in one of the creeks down about the mouth of the river.

MEMORIAL TABLETS.—The tablets to the memory of General George Washington and Robert E. Lee, purchased with subscriptions made by our citizens, have been inserted in the walls of Christ Church, on either side of the chancel. They are chaste and simple tributes to the heroes they commemorate, and are evidences of the refined and critical taste of those who selected them.

ANXIOUS.—The friends of the parties are very anxious about the fate of two Irishmen who left work on the Metropolitan Railroad, in Maryland, last Tuesday, to walk to this city, where their families reside, but who have not been heard from since the night of that day; and as it was intensely cold that night, and as they were drinking, it is feared that they may have frozen to death on the road.

DEAD.—The little child of Mr. Nunnemaker, who lives near the intersection of Princess and Pitt streets, that was burned so severely on Saturday last, by falling into the fire, as mentioned in the Gazette of that date, died on the following day from the injuries it had received.

SELLING LIQUOR.—Samuel Walton, a former resident of this neighborhood, but who sold out, and was appointed an Indian Agent a year or so ago, has been convicted of selling intoxicating beverages to the Pawnee Indians.

GORED BY A COW.—A young man while in the yard in rear of Mr. Lee's livery stable, on Christmas day, was attacked by an infuriated cow and gored. He escaped, however, with only a few slight injuries.

FROSTBITTEN.—The driver of the Cameron Mills wagon who was caught in Washington on Saturday last, by the suspension of navigation, and had to drive back over the road had his hands severely frostbitten.

SUN FIRE COMPANY.—An attempt will be made to reorganize the Sun Fire Company, once the most efficient in the city. A meeting for the purpose will be held in the Racine House.

NOTARY PUBLIC.—Mr. Jesse Owings, of Fairfax county, has been appointed a notary public by the Governor.

RETAINED LETTERS.—Among the letters retained in the postoffice at Lynchburg is one for Robt. McDaniel, Alexandria, Va.

JOHN H. SERRATT'S LECTURE.—John H. Serratt, who will deliver his lecture here on Monday next was announced in the Washington papers to deliver his lecture on Friday evening next, at Lincoln Hall, the principal hall in Washington. The building is under the charge of the Young Men's Christian Association, and the hall having been named in memory of Mr. Lincoln it became a question of propriety whether Serratt should deliver his lecture there. Accordingly a meeting of the joint stock company was held, and it was resolved not to allow Serratt to deliver his lecture in Lincoln Hall.

INFRACON OF INTERNAL REVENUE LAW.

A merchant of Gordonsville and one from Roanoke, were examined before U. S. Commissioner Whittlesey last week, and bailed for their appearance before the U. S. Circuit Court.

POLICE REPORT.—The police officers say that some of the streets of Alexandria will not light. The regular and some additional force was kept pretty well employed yesterday in taking up drunken people.

The crew of the schooner L. W. Wheeler, Captain Isaac Lewis, complained this morning that the captain had discharged them without paying their fare back to a northern port, as required by the articles of agreement. The captain maintains that this is a northern port. Three stray horses were taken up in different quarters of the city on Christmas eve night.

MAJOR'S OFFICE.—Columbus Beach, hailing from Washington, for disorderly conduct, was discharged with a reprimand.

H. C. Lawrence, hailing from Washington, for disorderly conduct, was fined and discharged.

APRON TOMBS and W. A. Smith, also from Washington, for disorderly conduct and for resisting the police officers, were discharged with a reprimand.

Calvin Goings, Basil Warring and Joseph Tittsbaugh, for disorderly conduct, were dismissed with an admonition.

Thomas Johnson, colored, for disorderly conduct in a larger beer saloon on King street, was fined and discharged.

James Mitchell, colored, for striking his wife, was fined and discharged.

Charles Semple, committed to jail on the charge of stealing clothing from the house of Mr. John Atwell, was re-examined and fully committed for Court.

MASTERS' OFFICE.—William Phillips, for stealing $25 from Thomas Downey, was committed to jail for examination at the next term of the Court. An effort was made to compromise the case by a return of the money, but Justice May stated that the day of compromise for such cases had passed and gone, and that offenders must face the music.

NIGHT REPORT.—Night clear and cold. There were no disturbances and but one arrest after ten o'clock. Several lodgers, among them a man with his wife and two small children, who had walked, they said, all the way from Wheeling.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
The Great Pictorial Annual.
Hostetter's United States Almanac for 1871, for distribution, gratis, throughout the United and all civilized countries of the Western Hemisphere, will be published about the first of January, in the English, German, French, Norwegian, Welsh, Swedish, Holland, Bohemian and Spanish languages, and all who wish to understand the true philosophy of health should read and ponder the valuable suggestions it contains.
